

Cassandra Koukios

Cassandra began her journey into funeral service in 2022 and also has an extensive background in the cemetery industry. She is currently attending Worsham College of Mortuary Science to become a licensed funeral director alongside of being a resident trainee at Zaagman Memorial Chapel in Grand Rapids, MI.

She enjoys spending her time with her son, Teddy, and she loves to golf, ski, and hike.