

Joy Robinson

Joy is an online student that attends Gupton-Jones College of Funeral Service in Decatur, Georgia. She will be approaching her final semester in January 2024.

She is deeply committed to providing creative, value-based offerings in order to serve families in a meaningful way. Due to Joy's unwavering dedication, she has relocated to New York to accept a position working at Moloney's Family Funeral Home. As a soon to be funeral director and embalmer, Joy is equipped to ascend toward excellence. Offering a level of care that matches her character toward humility and service.

Joy is grateful and blessed for the American Board of Funeral Service Education (ABFSE) staff, team and committee for selecting her to receive this scholarship. Her unyielding devotion continues to grow.
