

I decided to pursue a career in funeral service because I believe it is a wonderful way of supporting my community. I am excited about my future in funeral service because I believe that I have ideas that will benefit my colleagues in the field as well as the families we serve.