

Matthew Miles

Matthew Miles is a future first generation funeral director with a long history of service to the community. Prior to enrolling in mortuary school Matthew earned his Bachelor's degree in criminal justice from the State University of New York at Potsdam. He used his degree to work in fields such as corporate loss prevention and law enforcement as a state correctional officer. Outside of work Matthew enjoys volunteering in community service programs such as the US Coast Guard Auxiliary and Civil Air Patrol, with whom Matthew has a long and honorable service record. Matthew decided to enter funeral service to be a part of an old yet rapidly changing profession and make his mark as a proud member of the next generation of funeral directors, serving families during their time of need.

Although originally from upstate New York Matthew plans to pursue his license in Texas after graduating school. Matthew currently lives in New Jersey with his 2 pets.
