

Biography

Ayana D'Antuono is from Niagara Falls, New York. She attended Niagara Wheatfield CSD and graduated from high school in 2017. She started school at NCCC where she graduated in 2023. She is currently attending Pittsburgh Institute of Mortuary Science to earn her Associate in Specialized Technology (AST) Degree.

She has worked in the funeral service for over five years now. She has been a volunteer firefighter since she was 13 years old. She loves to read and travel especially to Disney World. She is now a cruise enthusiast.

Ayana is very appreciative of the ABFSE for granting her this scholarship. She is going to use the scholarship to further her education in mortuary science.