

Kaitlynn Ross

I live in Huron County, Michigan and currently attend Worsham College of Mortuary Science to complete the requirements for state licensure as a funeral director in Michigan.

I've held a passion for the funeral service profession from a very young age and am thrilled to be nearing the completion of my licensing journey.

In my free time, I enjoy spending time with my fiancé and my son. Together, we love dancing, playing Fortnite, and visiting the park.