

Wren Melanson

I'm currently a student at the University of Minnesota's MortSci program! My hometown is Watertown, SD and I moved to the twin cities for school. I currently work for the Anatomy Bequest Program. After graduating, I plan on getting my license after my internship and then continuing work with whole body donation or organ procurement. When I'm not at work or school, I'm at home with my cat named Large Marge!